POSITION OF THE PENNSYLVANIA TOWARD SOUTHERN LINES.

Report of Receiver Malott, of the Vandalia-The Terre Haute & Peoria Still Operated at a Loss.

In commenting on the rumors regarding 39,950.79 Seaboard Air-line and possibly the Plant system of roads the Philadelphia Times says: "We are aware that four years ago such a suggestion would have been reseems to be no reason to disbelieve that he is willing to control absolutely all the roads 30,046.60 east of the Mississippi from the Pennsylvania lines south to the gulf, excepting only the Illinois Central. In a sense the Pennsylvania does control most of the through Southern traffic. It operates the Before me, Frank C. Jordan, a notary public in and for said county, this 10th day of April, 1962, came T. A. Morris, president, and H. McK. Landon, assistant secretary of the Indianapolis Water Company, and under oath declared the cinnati is over Pennsylvania lines. The above statement to be correct and true, accordsidered an almost hopeless proposition. Transportation in the South has been so uniformly disastrous to investors that there THE JOURNAL DESIRES TO USE AN AP-TO ATTRACT ATTENTION TO ITS WANT grafted upon the Pennsylvania system. We trust that this is the case. Nothing could be better for the South as well as for investors than that the Pennsylvania should
